

NSIC Tennis Championships

Apr. 21-22

at University of Minnesota

Baseline Tennis Center

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.: Winona State won the NSIC women's tennis tournament on Sunday evening. It is the Warriors' third consecutive NSIC title. Michele Bailey of Winona State earned NSIC Most Valuable Player and Gary Harris of Minnesota State Moorhead was named NSIC Coach of the Year. For Bailey, it was the fourth-straight year she has earned the award.

NSIC Tournament Standings:

1. Winona State
2. Minnesota State Moorhead
3. Upper Iowa
4. Southwest Minnesota State
- 5 (tie). Minnesota, Crookston
- 5 (tie). Bemidji State

NSIC First Team All-Conference

Singles

1. Michele Bailey, Winona State
2. Megan Hertz, Winona State
3. Laura Hobert, Winona State
4. Maggie Lindquist, Winona State
5. Diana Naatz, SW Minnesota State
6. Beth Helgeson, MSU Moorhead

Doubles

1. Michele Bailey/Mary Hesterman, Winona State
2. Mallery Cox/Kelsey Montgomery, Upper Iowa
3. Beth Helgeson/Maria Cederberg, MSU Moorhead

NSIC Honorable Mention All-Conference

Singles

1. Sarah Hildebrandt, SW Minnesota State
2. Rose Milless, MSU Moorhead
3. Mallery Cox, Upper Iowa
4. Erin Kelley, Upper Iowa
5. Laura Benz, MSU Moorhead
6. Stephanie Johnson, Upper Iowa

Doubles

1. Rose Milless/Miranda Quast, MSU Moorhead
2. Laura Hobert/Maggie Lindquist, Winona State
3. Nicole Hartmann/Diana Naatz, SW Minnesota State