Addressing Personal Legal Concerns

The LifeMatters Legal Consultation Service provides a free initial legal consultation with an experienced attorney, either over the phone or in person. Some common reasons that people call include:

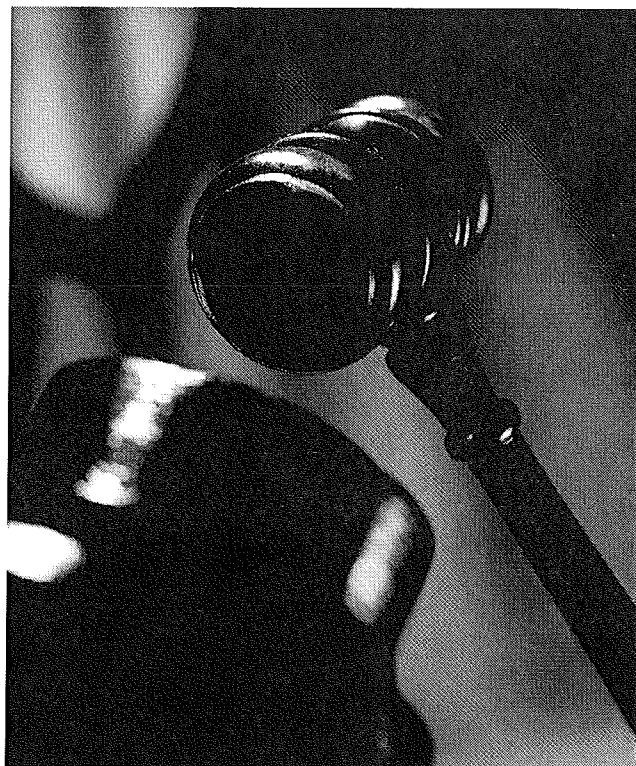

- Consumer concerns
- Divorce, legal separation, and pre- or post-nuptial agreements
- Automobile problems (fender benders, traffic citations, etc.)
- Personal injury cases
- Child support or custody issues
- Legal questions pertaining to the death of a family member
- Real estate questions
- Estate planning
- Criminal law issues

How to access services:

- Call 1-800-657-3719.
- Explain that you would like to use the Legal Consultation Service.

During this call, a Client Care Specialist will:

- Review the services provided by LifeMatters, including the Legal Consultation Service.
- Connect you with the Legal Consultation Service, which will provide you with the name and number of an attorney in your area.

(Please note that if you call outside of normal business hours, a follow-up call will be scheduled to arrange your contact with the legal service).

After you have the name of an attorney in your area, you may schedule a free initial consultation. The attorney will give you information on your rights, legal options, and the costs you could expect to incur during a legal action. Following the initial consultation, all fees are your responsibility. You are under no obligation to retain the attorney who provides your initial consultation.

The Legal Consultation Service is available for all personal legal matters except employment law, international law, or matters related to a privately-owned business. Please call.
