Conditions

1. A written proposal for the exhibition must be submitted with the contract at least one month prior to the exhibition. The proposal gives a description of the exhibition, what type of work it will include and a brief artist statement. The proposal should be no more than a page long.
2. A deposit of $20 will be made when you submit the contract at least one month prior to the exhibition. The deposit will be returned to you on completion of the exhibition if the contract has been upheld. If the contract has been violated the deposit will be kept by the gallery.

3. The exhibition information and posters must be submitted at least 2 weeks prior to the opening of the exhibit in order to advertise through HMU. This includes the HMU website, and Table Tents. Posters are the artists' responsibility and must be stamped by the HMU desk.
4. The artist(s) is responsible for delivery of art work to the gallery and for picking it up at the termination of the exhibition and contract.
5. It is the artist(s) responsibility to install and strike their work. The Student Gallery Director may assist, if arranged at least 2 weeks prior, with the set up and removal of work.
6. No glue, duct tape, spray adhesive, etc. is to be used on the gallery walls. The Touché Gallery will provide supplies and equipment to install most work.
7. Damages done to the gallery during your exhibition must be repaired properly by the termination of the exhibition and contract. Holes are to be spackled, sanded, and painted. Scuff marks and smudges must be painted as well. The walls of the gallery should be in good condition at the conclusion of your exhibition.
8. The Touché Gallerie Director and/or Associate Director, HMU reserves the right to remove works that may:
 - Pose a possible safety or fire hazard
 - That detracts from overall exhibit
 - Be markedly different from the submitted proposal for the exhibition
 - Works that are found to be extremely offensive
9. The Touché Gallerie and its management, HMU and BSU, are not responsible or liable for damage, misplaced or stolen items. All works must be properly secured to the walls, podiums, etc. and are the responsibility of the artist(s). Special considerations should be assumed by the artist(s) exhibiting small works (i.e. jewelry, small metals, etc.)
10. HMU shall retain the right to photograph said exhibition for publication in student publications including but not limited to print and electronic.
11. This contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Any Changes in this contract must be in writing, dated, and signed by both parties.
12. If the contract has not been upheld at the conclusion of the exhibition, you may forfeit the ability to reserve the Touche Gallerie. If gallery damages are not repaired at the termination of your contract, you forfeit your $20 deposit.
