

Orientation Leader Job Description

Role of an Orientation Leader: Orientation Leaders are part of the Advising Success Center.

The responsibilities are:

- Welcome incoming new students and parents to BSU life
- Role model university expectations in all areas (academics, social, etc.)
- Facilitate small group interactions
- Be a resource for parents and students
- Be an active participant in assigned Orientation events
- Staff assigned locations and provide assistance as required
- Other duties as assigned

As an Orientation Leader, you must be able to work with a variety of constituents.

Requirements

- Must have a 2.0 cumulative gpa or higher
- Must be in good standing with the BSU student code of conduct
- Must be available to work at any time needed from Wednesday, August 17 to Sunday, August 21, 2011 and cannot have other employment commitments during this time period
- Must be registered for Fall 2011 semester courses

What's in it for you?

- Early arrival for On-Campus Housing waived
- $100 Stipend
- Meals during orientation training and weekend
- Orientation leader t-shirt
- Amazing training
- Leadership experience
- A new addition to your resume
- Develop new friendships and a fun experience
- Warm fuzzies of knowing you did a good job and helped a fellow student.

Working with the Advising Success Center is beneficial to any major because it can expand your skill base while having fun at the same time!