Estimated Expenses for a Single International Student

2022-2023 Academic Year

(two terms from August to May)

Fall Term 2022: Class starts on Monday, August 22nd
Spring Term 2023: Class starts on Monday, January 09th

In-State Tuition for All International Students

In-State Tuition & Fees $10,150/academic year or $5,075 term

Undergraduate international students including ELC students on an F-1 or J-1 visa must take a minimum of 12 credits each term (fall and spring) to maintain their visa status. A minimum of 9 credits each term is required of graduate students. Summer term is optional; however, if you take summer classes, there will be additional expenses for tuition and books. Average BSU courses are three credits, and undergraduate students may take up to 18 credits each term without additional tuition cost. Some individual classes may have course fees, which varies from term to term.

Room & Meals (on campus) $9,435 academic year (double occupancy room with meal plans) or $4,718 term

Health Insurance $2,100 (estimated for 12 months)

Miscellaneous Expenses $1,650 (estimated books, supplies and personal expenses)

Estimated (I-20) Total $23,335 (Your Financial Affidavit must show a minimum of this amount)

The above figures are meant to serve as guidelines and are subject to change. In order to obtain a student visa, you must prove that you will be supported fully for your entire course of study.

Health insurance is required of international students. The estimated health insurance rate for 2022-23 calendar year is $2,100, and you must plan on paying this immediately upon arrival.

Limited on-campus employment opportunities are available, and an international student must be registered full time to be eligible to apply after arrival on campus. Please note that the maximum pay an international student can earn on campus is currently around $700 per month.
