Spring Term 2024: Class starts on Monday, January 8th

In-State Tuition for All International Students

In-State Tuition &amp; Fees	$10,440/academic year or $5,220/semester
Room &amp; Meals	$10,726/academic year (double occupancy room with meal plans) or $5,363/semester
Health Insurance	$2,300 (12 months)
Miscellaneous Expenses	$1,850 (textbooks, supplies, personal expenses)
Estimated Total	$25,316 (Your Financial Affidavit must show a minimum of this amount)

The above figures are meant to serve as guidelines and are subject to change. All dollar ($) amounts are in USD. In order to obtain a student visa, you must prove that you will be financially supported fully for your entire course of study.

Undergraduate international students on an F-1 or J-1 visa must take a minimum of 12 credits each term (fall and spring) to maintain their visa status. A minimum of 9 credits each term is required of graduate students. Summer term is optional; however, if you take summer classes, there will be additional expenses for tuition and books. Average BSU courses are three credits each. Undergraduate students may take up to 18 credits each term without additional tuition cost. Some individual classes may have course fees, which varies from term to term.

Health insurance is required of international students. The estimated health insurance rate for 2023-24 calendar year is $2,300, and you must plan on paying this, in full, immediately upon arrival.

Limited on-campus employment opportunities are available and are not guaranteed. International students must be registered full time to be eligible to apply after arrival on campus. Please note that the maximum pay an international student can earn on campus is currently around $800 per month.
