If awarded, these funds may be used for one-time emergency support, based on the student being a current Bemidji State University student enrolled a minimum of part-time, and attending classes during the semester request is made. Emergency funds can include but not limited to academic schooling costs (textbooks, tuition, etc.) utilities, legal advice, medical bills, one-time assistance to purchase food, help paying rent or utilities and other legitimate financial needs. Students may not receive greater than the maximum allowed ($500). Funds will be distributed by the Bemidji State University Alumni & Foundation accounting department. Funds may be sent to a third-party vendor, or by check directly to the student. A thank you note by the student receiving the funds is encouraged.
