BEMIDJI STATE UNIVERSITY

Dates and Deadlines

E-SERVICES

Your BSU e-Services (go to <https://www.bemidjistate.edu/> - select “MyBSU” and then “e-Services”) allows you to add and drop classes, verify your class schedule, search for open sections, check grades, update your address, view/print your academic record and pay for your tuition and fees.

GRADUATION

Complete and submit graduation plans to the Records Office two semesters before you plan to graduate. If there are any problems, you will have time to make corrections.

TUITION/FEE PAYMENT & REFUND POLICIES

Details regarding payment deadlines and refund information can be found on our website:
<https://www.bemidjistate.edu/offices/business-services/tuition-fees/>

FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS

Pre-registration each semester is essential to avoid delays in receiving your financial aid disbursement. The number of registered credits should coincide with your financial aid status (full or part-time).

RETURN OF TITLE IV FUNDS POLICY

Repayment requirements for students who cease attending all of their classes: Financial aid recipients who withdraw or cease attending all of their classes prior to 60% of the term being completed (including courses with a grade of “F” for non-attendance) are subject to the federal rules for the Return of Title IV Funds for any federal aid not earned and the refund calculation for the Minnesota State Grant and SELF loan. A student who does not complete all days they are scheduled to complete in module courses (that is, courses that do not span the entire length of the semester) are also considered withdrawn and are subject to the Return of Title IV funds rules. The Return of Title IV Funds Policy can be viewed in its entirety at:
<http://www.bemidjistate.edu/mybsu/resources/forms>

FINANCIAL AID SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

To remain eligible for Federal and State financial aid programs, students must maintain satisfactory academic progress in the following three areas: (1) students must maintain an overall minimum completion rate of 66.67% of attempted coursework, (2) students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average as outlined in the Financial Aid Office’s Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, and (3) students must complete their program of study within a timeframe not to exceed 150% of the required number of credits for obtaining their degree at BSU. The Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy can be viewed in its entirety at:
<http://www.bemidjistate.edu/mybsu/resources/forms>

DELINQUENT FEES

Students owing money to the University will not be allowed to register for a subsequent semester, receive transcripts, or be granted a degree until their financial obligations are cleared.
