Registration cancellation for non-payment is a process by which the University reviews all outstanding accounts to ensure minimum financial requirements have been met. The first cancellation for nonpayment is May 22nd.

- Student will not be dropped from their registered classes if they meet one of the criteria.

  1. Financial Aid has received your FAFSA either for summer term or previous academic year.

  2. A payment of 15% or $300 on fees and tuition, whichever is less.

  3. Scholarship or Third Party Students: scholarships or benefits are approved and on record with the Business Office

- All student bills must be paid in full June 22. Charges for registration after June 22 are due in full July 31st.
