Study Title: An Examination of Reported Motivation and Time Allocation Across Five Teaching Tasks Among Online and Face-to-Face University Level Social Science Faculty

Researcher: Pete Cooper, M.S., LPC-S, Ph.D.c (Dissertation Student)

Address and Telephone Number: 2000 N. Causeway Blvd. Suite B. Mandeville, LA 70471
Phone: 985-882-1233
Email Address: pcooper5@capellauniversity.edu

Research Supervisor: Chris Kladopolous Ph.D., HS-BCP

Dear Social Science Faculty Member,

The researcher wants to find out if there is a difference in overall reported level of motivation, reported level of different types of motivation, and reported level of motivation for specific teaching tasks, among on-line and face to face social sciences faculty.

The researcher also wants to evaluate how much time people spend doing particular teaching tasks. Your participation in the research is completely voluntary. Volunteers in the research must be teachers at the college level with a minimum of one completed course in the field of social science including, but not limited to, counseling, psychology, criminology, anthropology, political science, law, sociology and social work. Volunteers must also be between the ages of 25-60. Your participation in the research should take approximately 30 minutes of your time and, for your convenience, the consent form and surveys, will be completed through Survey Monkey. Here is the link to the survey if you wish to participate:

https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/online-vs-face-to-facedata

Sincerely,

-Pete Cooper M.S., LPC-S, Ph.D.c (Dissertation Student)