Current Course Title: Indigenous Philosophy
Proposed Course Title, if different: Indigenous Lifeways

Current Course Description:
This course is designed to provide students with an understanding and awareness of the native philosophical world views and the interface that occurs among indigenous peoples and western people. Part of this understanding is that of two worlds; one of those worlds is the native world and the other being the western world. At the heart of native existence is the spiritual ecology, natural environments, human geography, identity, Indian activism, Christian and native religious beliefs and contemporary life ways. Prerequisites: Junior or senior standing or by consent of instructor.

Daniel-
We are making a revision to INST 4207 as part of the curricular reforms for indigenous studies. This is largely a cosmetic change, but since this class is part of the Philosophy requirements on campus, we wanted to make sure you are notified of change, which is largely a change in the course description. Let me know if you have any questions.

- INST 2810 Anishinaabe Place Names

We are modifying one course:
  Modify This Class
- INST 4207 rename to Indigenous Lifeways (combining content from 4207 and 4007)

Reason(s) for the change(s):

We have completed revamped and streamlined the Indigenous Studies program at BSU. The modified program will offer a course rotation and requirements for major, minor, and certificate that allow students to complete the program in a more timely fashion and with greater relevancy for their career or academic tracks.
Note: In order to avoid hidden prerequisites, if a course is being dropped from this program (but not from the entire curriculum), please check for which remaining courses may include this dropped course as a prerequisite. Course prerequisites may be found in the online catalog (http://www.bemidjistate.edu/academics/catalog/). Remedies for hidden prerequisites may be found under Curriculum Forms at (http://www.bemidjistate.edu/faculty_staff/faculty_association/forms/).

Note: If a course from another department/program was either added to or dropped from this program, please notify the chair/coordinator of that course's department/program and indicate the following:

Indigenous Studies is dropping SOWK 3780 from its minor.

The course’s home department/program was notified of the addition or dropping of their course(s) on ________ (date) by ___________________ (mail, email, or phone).

Please check one of the items below:

___X___ No comments were received from other programs or departments within one week of the notification.
1.15.19 Per Anton Social Work has been notified of this change.

______ Comments were received within one week of the notification, and are attached.

Note: If this is a joint program, the signatures of both department chairs (and both deans, if different colleges) must be provided.

Alert: Attach a copy of the current program showing the marked changes.
Please copy the current program from the online catalog (http://www.bemidjistate.edu/academics/catalog/) and paste it into Word. Then use either the Track Changes feature under Tools, or the underline and strikethrough Font feature under Format. (Please note that the Track Changes feature may be easily switched on and off by holding down the Ctrl+Shift+E keys.)
