What’s happening this week...

Allan Chapman: Eurospring Lecture
Tues. 9/25 HS102, 4:00pm
Ghosts, Devils and Witches; How Superstitious were the Middle Ages? Allan Chapman is a science historian based at Oxford University. He has been principle lecturer and Academic Director of the BSU Eurospring program.

Campus Academic Technology Team (CATT) Meeting
Wed. 9/26 Ozawindib Room, HMU, 2:00pm
This is a follow-up to the system CATT meeting, it provides updates from campus technology groups, and is an opportunity to hear about faculty technology initiatives and issues. Register through the TLC Calendar

Tenure and Promotion Workshop
Thurs. 9/27 David Park House 4:00-5:30pm
Everything you need to know, including new guidelines, samples of successful packets, and snacks! All are welcome. NO RSVP necessary.

Upcoming events

Honors Lectures: Dr. Holly LaFerriere - Identification and Characterization of Genes Important for Memory Formation in Drosophila melanogaster. Wed. 10/3 Hagg-Sauer 112 6:00pm

Insisting on Equity Conference: state wide educators conference focused on educational equity. Click for full details
Sat. 10/13 Washington Technology School, Saint Paul

Minnesota State Discipline Teaching Grants
Connect with colleagues across the MinnState system to either 1) integrate culturally relevant teaching practices into instruction, OR 2) support exploration of AACU-identified High-Impact Practices (HIPs) within a discipline.
Grant maximum: $10,000
Deadline: Oct. 15, 2018
Full grant information link

Visit the TLC online at: bemidjistate.edu/go/tlc email: bsutlc@bemidjistate.edu