Choosing A Room & Roommate

Our housing module has made selecting your room and/or roommate easier than ever!

Meal Plan Options

Meal plans and costs for 2022-23 have yet to be determined. We highly encourage all students to be on a meal plan. Please choose one of the options, and your choice will be adjusted to a comparable plan once determined. You can make meal plan changes until the end of the second week each semester.

Cancellation Of Agreement

If your plans change after you reserve a room for next year, contact us immediately. Agreement cancellations received in the Housing & Residential Life office, IN WRITING, on or before Aug. 1 will receive a $50 refund of their prepayment.

Remember, students that live on campus have higher GPA's, complete more credits, and are connected to and more involved in campus life.

Current residence hall students will have priority to select a room and meal plan for the 2022-23 academic year during the Room & Meal Selection process. Please read the following information so you can take advantage of this opportunity. If you have questions, please ask your RA/PAA/ABM, stop by the Housing & Residential Life office or call us at (218)755-3750. We want you to continue your journey as a member of the residential community at Bemidji State University.

Priority Point FAQs

Exactly what is the Priority Point Process?

The Priority Point Process is designed to recognize our residence hall students through a chance to select a special room option (for the following academic year) based on their length of time in the residence halls, their involvement in leadership opportunities and their academic success. In addition to special room options, those participating in the Priority Point Process also get priority selection as to the location (hall and floor) of their room.

I won't have many points. Should I still participate in the Priority Point Process?

Yes! Even though students with the most points will have a better chance of securing a special room option, all students who submit a Priority Point Worksheet improve their odds. In previous years, Housing & Residential Life has been able to accommodate the majority of students who participated in the Priority Point Process.

What are special room options?

Special room options are all rooms other than doubles. They include singles, two- or three-person suites, double-as-singles, and singles with baths.

If I participate in the Priority Point Process and choose a room type where I will be living with others, do I get to pick my roommates, even if they did not participate?

In order to pick roommates, students must form a group in the roommate section of the housing application. We recommend that the group member with the earliest room selection time-slot completes room selection for the entire group. Contact the Res Life Office with questions.

Room Selection Check-List

- Put the dates on your calendar.
